NOURISH GAMES

Talk. Draw. Act.

Fifty-two food words: 20 to describe, 17 to draw, and 15 to act out. Print the six sheets that follow, cut on the dashed lines, and shuffle.

WHAT YOU NEED

Six sheets of card stock (plain paper works too), a pencil and paper for the Draw cards, and a timer. Print at actual size (100%).

CUTTING

Cut on the dashed lines: nine cards per sheet, 2½ by 3½ inches (6.4 by 8.9 cm), the size of a playing card.

THE COLORED BAND

Every card carries a band naming what it asks you to do, so a shuffled pile sorts itself by eye if you want to play one kind at a time.

KEEP THE CARDS HIDDEN

Only the clue giver sees the card. On a Talk card the five forbidden words are on the card too, and saying one costs a point.

HOW TO PLAY

TALK
Describe it out loud. Never say the word or any of the five listed. No gestures, no sounds, no brand names.

DRAW
Draw it. No letters, no numbers, no talking.

ACT
Act it out in silence. No sounds, no pointing at things in the room.

90 seconds a turn. A point for each word guessed, minus one for a forbidden word. First team to fifteen wins.
